

56%

of African-American passenger vehicle occupants who died in crashes were not wearing a seat belt.

Source: NHTSA FARS 2018

Wearing a seat belt at all times when traveling in a vehicle is the most effective way to decrease the risk of death in a motor vehicle crash.

Motor vehicle crashes are the second leading cause of unintentional injury deaths for African-Americans within all age groups.

Visit NHTSA.gov

